

RECENT ACTIVITIES - SUBSURFACE

Drilling has been carried out to determine subsurface conditions in a number of areas. Combined with information obtained in ground-level and aerial surveys, the data will help in planning and assessing alignment options, estimating construction costs and determining techniques to be used in construction.

A drilling crew near Golden Donald Upper Road

Aerial view of Park Bridge and its eastern approaches